Hello!

The title of the student interaction with alumni is from Robert Frost's "The Road not Taken" where the narrator declares knowledge of how ways lead on to ways and takes responsibility for his/her choices. It is in the spirit of assisting informed choices that the Department of English is arranging an interaction session for our postgraduate students with one of our alumni who has found her calling.

Ms. Levina Shaju, currently an editor at Graphic India, graduated from Nirmala College in 2019 and has 3 years of experience as an editor/writer and content creator. Previously associated with Emerald books as an editor, Ms. Shaju later shifted her focus to comic books, animated series, webtoons and podcasts, working closely with illustrators, designers and artists.

Wish you all a fruitful session.
